

Families,

Happy Valentines Day! We are looking forward to a week of love and kindness. Our student council will continue selling carnations and candy to be delivered at the end of the day on Wednesday. Sales at noon on Monday for these sweet treats so click here for an order form. Candy-Gram.bmp We will celebrate in our elementary classrooms on Wednesday beginning at 1:30. Watch for information from your teachers. PreK-5 families will continue the celebration on Thursday evening at our PTA Sweetheart Dance. Click here for more details. Congratulations to all of our honor society inductees! Also, thank you to the teacher sponsors for making these groups happen.

- National Junior Honor Society: 51 inductees
- International Thespian Honor Society: 14 inductees
- Tri-M (Music Honor Society): 42 inductees
- National Junior Art Honor Society: 10 inductees
- National Honor Society for Dance Arts: 15 inductees

We had great discussion at our Desserts and Dialogue last week. In addition to the discussion, we viewed the Ted Talk focused on the danger of a single story. Take a minute to check it out.

Volunteers needed! We are getting ready for our first Academy Art Show. This exciting event will showcase artwork from all our elementary students and our middle school visual artists. Preparation includes organizing and labeling artwork before framing. Sign up to help out and add to your volunteer hours. Sign Up Genius
