What Makes Huntsville Special?

The city of Huntsville is known for its contributions to the space and military defense industries. Our high school is known for contributing students ready to work in these fields. A stellar college preparatory curriculum paired with our career academies in Engineering, Biomedical Sciences, Cyber Security and travel programs in Welding, Green Power, and Advanced Manufacturing creates students that are prepared for college and/or the work force.

An A rated school by the ALSDE, Huntsville High students are also well rounded with opportunities in 25 athletic programs, theatric and musical productions, JROTC programs and clubs too numerous to list.
